

Hundreds Attend The Opening of The House that Mac Built

With flowers of every variety and greenery and ferns adding a decided artistic touch, The House That Mac Built was the mecca Saturday for the residents of the West End of San Bernardino County, for it was the informal opening of the new emporium of Mac the Medicine Man which has been in the making the past few weeks.

Throughout the entire day visitors came and went and each visitor at the store was piloted throughout the institution that they might know of what Mac and his famous Trusty Crew had built that patrons might be served efficiently.

During the afternoon and evening O'Hara's Orchestra provided a musical program and Miss Madeline Chaffee presented several vocal numbers which delighted her hearers. Each guest was presented a valuable souvenir of the occasion and many were the compliments heard of The House That Mac Built, which one of the visitors from out-of-town summed up as follows: "In the course of my travels I visit many drug, stationery, soda fountain, confectionery and tobacco stores, and if there is anything in this southern country that compares even favorably with Mac's new store, I don't know where it is. You people here should be, and evidently are, proud of Mac's new place of business."

Members of the Rotary Club of Upland, of which Mac is President, came to the store during the early evening and sang some of the Rotary songs, which the crowd evidently enjoyed, as each number received a hearty encore.

As can be seen by the accompanying photograph, one of the most attractive floral pieces was that presented by W. J. McCloskey, the Upland Florist. Beautifully worked in flowers are the words "Mac Says So," which as a slogan is known throughout this section.

The accompanying cut will give readers of The News an excellent idea of The House That Mac Built. The photos are by Swan, of Swan's Music and Art Shop.

OLD LANDMARK IS BEING REMOVED

A landmark of early days in Upland will soon leave Euclid Avenue. The mover has the skids under the old Presbyterian manse, north of the church, and a vacant lot will greet the eye for a short time until the plans can be completed for the new building.

Myron Hunt is the architect for the new manse, and first sketches for the building have been considered by the committee. Mr. Hunt's office is now working on amended plans.

The old building is one of the early buildings of the colony. Originally it was located south of the Santa Fe tracks. For most of the residents of Upland, however, it has always been identified with the present location, where it was moved many years ago.

C.O.F.C. CONGRATULATE MAC ON NEW STORE

The Upland Chamber of Commerce joins with the entire community in congratulating P. H. MacQuillen upon the magnificent new store building which was officially opened last Saturday. It was not curiosity alone, nor even the wish for souvenirs and opening day bargains that brought the crowds that thronged the store during the day till the closing hour. For there was a real interest in the beautiful building that has put the seal of quality on the Upland business district, and a sense of appreciation to the man, who with his "Trusty Crew" has set a standard of service.

So gradual has been the change in the Upland business district that some of us have almost forgotten the looks of our principal business street but a few years ago. At that time Upland was far behind other small towns in the attractiveness of the stores. Today few towns of many times the size of Upland can boast such a block of business houses as we find here.

Along with the changes in business blocks has come a building activity in the way of homes, and many new dwellings are planned for the near future.

The opening of Second Avenue has given the city a new outlook to the north. The Red Hill Country Club and the magnificent new plant of San Antonio Community Hospital have created a new interest in property in the eastern part of Upland. Fine new homes are being built west of Euclid, and the coming year promises to be one of prosperity and growth.

Tommy hesitated a moment. Then suddenly: "Does a red-headed kid by the name of Jimmy Brown go to your school?"

CHILDREN'S DAY NEXT SUNDAY

Next Sunday is Children's Day at the Presbyterian Church, and the committee, of which Mrs. C. E. Corry is chairman, is planning to make the church a bower of beauty.

Larkspur, cornflowers and daisies are needed for decoration and quantities of greenery—aspasagus fern, smilax and sword fern. Anyone having flowers available is asked to bring them to the church Saturday morning, and someone will be in charge to care for them. A telephone call to Mrs. Corry, 346-W-3, will be sufficient, if it is not possible to bring in the flowers.

The Children's Day program takes the place of the regular morning service. A splendid program of music has been provided as well as drills and other class exercises.

The pastor will be with his mother in the Middle West on Sunday and will be missed. However, it is a source of great joy to the church that he could attend the graduation of his daughter and the 30th anniversary of his own graduation from Park College.

HAIR EXPERT AT J. J. ATWOOD CO.

Nipa Majel, who is a recognized hair expert in the United States, is with the J. J. Atwood Company for the next ten days, demonstrating the care of the hair to those who call on her.

Madame Majel is a beauty specialist from Boston, Mass., and there is nothing in the line of hair materials she cannot supply. She is enthusiastic over her work and is thoroughly conversant with the needs of the human hair.

In a short interview today with a News representative Madame Majel said: "If women only knew the vitality and beauty in the hair they throw away every day from combings, they would not be so spend-thrift, but save it for switches. Over $5,000,000 worth of perfectly good hair is thrown away in the United States every year in combings. People are departing from the old heavy wig of former days, and now use several pieces, with the result that detection is almost impossible."

The Upland people are invited to call on Madame Majel, who will gladly advise them on any subject relating to the hair. She is at the Atwood Company's store every day for the next ten days.

Donny's mother had evidently told the lad of the nearness of an addition to the family. "Which would you rather have, Don, a girl or a boy?"

"There isn't any choice. It's got to be a girl. I'm tired of washing dishes."—Judge.

CELEBRATE CLEAN- UP WEEK IN UPLAND

We now take pleasure in introducing Honorable Tin Can, Honorable Weed, Honorable Trash, Honorable Debris—in fact, the entire Dirty Family.

This is their week and in their honor spades, hoes, rakes, wheelbarrows and much pep is aligned in one grand parade to the city dumping grounds.

Grand Marshal of the Week is Mayor Buffington, who has proclaimed this as Clean-Up Week. His Chief Assistant is Street Superintendent R. G. Manley, who claims that cleanliness is next to Godliness, and that those who hesitate toward nearing Godliness are going to be cleaned up in spite of themselves.

Monday morning found many curbs and alleys decorated with many hours of hard work, for piles of trash, sacks of cans, etc., were ready for the city trucks.

All the civic bodies are co-operating in this campaign and indications are favorable for a thorough clean-up. Last year nearly every lot was cleaned, although there were a few vacant ones where the owners could not be located. This year there will not be as many vacant lots for there have been 41 new homes erected in the city since that time.

If you own a vacant lot and desire to sell it, first clean it up, as Street Superintendent Manley observed that lots kept clean were the first ones sold. If there is a lot near you which has not been cleaned, report to Street Superintendent Manley. The lot probably belongs to a non-resident and Mr. Manley will notify the owner.

HARRY WHITE SELLS BILLIARD PARLORS

A deal was closed this morning by which Wm. McHenry, recently from Fillmore, California, purchases the pool and billiard parlor of Harry White.

Mr. McHenry recently sold his billiard and pool hall at Fillmore to take a rest, and is now ready to go to work again. Conducting a pool and billiard business that is a credit to the community in which it is operated is Mr. McHenry's specialty.

In Fillmore Mr. McHenry was known as "Admiral," but he says it was simply a nickname applied to him by his friends and neighbors, which stuck to him. Mr. McHenry is an extensive property owner at Fillmore and plans on transferring his property interests to Upland as fast as possible.

Mr. and Mrs. McHenry will be located here within a few days. Harry White, who has a host of friends here, will not leave the city but will take a long-needed rest.

HINKLEY TO TALK ON WATER SYSTEM

Tonight the Upland Chamber of Commerce and the Business Men's Association meet in joint session at the directors' room of the Ontario Cucamonga Fruit Exchange. Every director of both associations is expected when the gravel falls at seven-thirty, and interested members will be welcome.

Consulting Engineer Hinkley will be the speaker of the evening, and he will outline his proposal for the acquiring of a municipal water system by the City of Upland. An opportunity will be given for informal discussion and questioning.

The proposed water system is one of the most significant steps ever planned for this community. The project needs the careful thought of every citizen. The present water companies have given excellent service for many years, but they are anxious to let the community take over their systems if Upland wishes to build up a municipal department that can keep pace with the growth in population.

Another feature of the meeting will be the report of the committee that has been representing the two organizations and the City of Upland in planning a new electric sign to be placed over the Foothill Boulevard at Second Avenue, pointing the way down Upland's main business street.

A most attractive design has been worked out, and a color drawing will be shown at the meeting. The sign will be finished within a few weeks.

Home runs in March don't count in July.

ALFORD MAINTAINS HIS INNOCENCE

Indignantly, F. E. Alford, convicted ex-city manager of Ontario, last night rejected Chief Deputy District Attorney M. O. Hert's tentative offer of immunity on nine indictments on which he is yet to be tried on condition that Alford drop his appeal to the appellate court.

"Not by a long shot," Alford declared when told of the prosecutor's proposal to the convicted man's attorneys.

"I am going to carry my case to the District Court of Appeals and, if necessary and possible, to the California Supreme Court."

"I don't know if I should say it or not, but I can't help feeling that I did not have a fair trial. I am innocent and will fight to the last. I owe it to my family and to my friends. I hear that even my character witnesses who testified at my trial are being scorned in Ontario. There is no compromise which Mr. Hert could make to me that I would accept."

"I am not afraid of going to the penitentiary, but I do believe I should do everything to prove my innocence first."

Lawyers First Favor Proposal

Earlier in the day it appeared that Alford's attorneys were inclined to accept the compromise offer with but one stipulation—that the City of Ontario accept "not more than $30,000" and drop the pending civil suit against Alford and his wife, Grace, by which the city seeks to recover nearly $60,000 claimed to have been misappropriated by the ex-city manager.

Attorneys Raymond E. Hodge and Archie D. Mitchell of Ontario were in conference with Alford in the county jail. Attorney Hodge announced that if a compromise was made, Alford would insist that the civil suit be dropped in return for his withdrawing his appeal of his conviction, for which he was sentenced to serve from 2 to 20 years.

Still Denies He Stole Funds

From the day he was indicted, Alford has vowed he is innocent. Even to his attorneys, the ex-city manager has emphatically denied that he ever stole a dollar from the city, they declare.

"We have convicted Alford on five counts," said Chief Deputy District Attorney M. O. Hert, "and we are satisfied if he is satisfied. If he goes to the penitentiary and takes his 'jolt,' there will be no further trials. If Alford refuses to drop the appeal, the state will insist on early trials of the remaining indictments against him—and we are certain of convictions."

Alford to Appear in Court Today

Alford will appear in court today with John E. Huling, a Los Angeles business man, jointly indicted in an asserted conspiracy to defraud the City of Ontario out of more than $40,000, for the fixing of a date of their joint trial. Judge S. E. Crow, of Santa Barbara, has been assigned to the San Bernardino courts to hear the case. It will probably begin June 18. The date for the hearing of the litigation in which the city seeks to recover its asserted losses has not been set.

Alford and Huling are "at outs." Huling said he has not spoken to Alford in six months. It was announced by Mr. Hert that Huling had once offered to appear as a state's witness against Alford if granted immunity.

TO HOLD CLINIC FOR CRIPPLES IN ONTARIO

A clinic will be held on Saturday, June 9th, in the Ontario City Hall for the benefit of crippled people, children as well as adults, of the West End, at which Dr. Steele Stewart, orthopedic surgeon at the Children's Hospital, Los Angeles, will be present.

This clinic is held under the auspices of the San Bernardino County Welfare Committee, and Miss Elizabeth Hodges, county nurse, will be in attendance.

Dr. Stewart will hold consultation with the local physicians, and no case can be considered unless accompanied by a card from the local doctor or local school nurse.

VESPER CONCERT IN CHAFFEY AUDITORIUM SUNDAY

Next Sunday afternoon at four o'clock a great vesper concert will be given in Chaffey auditorium by the united choirs of Ontario and Upland and the glee clubs of Chaffey.

There will be more than 200 voices in the chorus. All are in-

Just a Little of This & That

What is Success?

Success these days is usually based on the amount of money you leave; the amount of life insurance; the number of clubs to which you belonged; etc., etc.

But success in this life is not always based on these things.

Major P. J. Potts was eighty-three years old on Sunday and in celebration of the event many came to visit him from afar, while late in the afternoon his neighbors came in and spent an hour or more, and as they left wished him many more years of enjoyable life.

But it is the ordinary every-day life and how we live it that makes for success, and being a neighbor of Major Potts', The News Man is going to point out to News readers what he believes is a successful life.

Major Potts, although born in the South, believed the northerners were right and joined the northern army. He was soon advanced from the ranks to Major and fought throughout the Civil War. Later he became a Kansas farmer, and all through the years when Kansas was having hard sledding, he labored on, only retiring when he came to Upland to live. He hasn't retired yet, as he probably puts in as many busy hours a day about his place as any business man devotes per day to his business.

One Sunday not long since, knowing that Mrs. Potts had gone for a ride with some friends and that the Major was at home, yours truly longed for a visit with the Major, but found him writing letters, so returned home to await the completion of the letters. But those letters were probably not completed during that afternoon, for four of the Major's friends showed up during that afternoon for a visit with him, and all of his visitors were from twenty-five to fifty years younger than he.

You and I have met many men and women of eighty who have an in-grown grudge and nasty disposition which is anything but pleasant to come in contact with, but Major Potts believes in people, and that being human they make many mistakes, but are doing the best they know how. He believes that the world is getting better, and that this life is worth living and its success depends on one's ability rather than a run of good luck which might come our way.

If a lot of us could change our ways and so live and so conduct our everyday life that when we are eighty or more years old four of our acquaintances would come in a single afternoon to visit us, success would be ours.

From King Tut's Tomb

John D. Howe came to The News office bearing a strange creation. At first John said it was from King Tut's tomb, but it developed that it was the petrified carcass of a cat, that workmen dug from beneath the old Garcia home. Old-time residents are of the opinion that the cat wandered into the Garcia cellar, which was one of the "six best" of thirty years ago, lapped up a drink that wasn't properly mixed, and was immediately embalmed and became a mummy. Others are of the opinion that this is the cat that met the rat after he drank freely from a vat of wine, then stood up on his hind legs and shouted: "Now bring on your darn cat." The cat was scared stiff and remained that way.

EVENING SCHOOL WORK EXHIBITION

Tonight at the Upland Grammar School on Tenth Street, there will be given an exhibition of the work done by the evening high school classes in Art for the Home, which have been doing remarkable work this winter under the direction of Miss Leila McClelland.

Polychrome, lamp shade making, and basketry are the principle forms of art which will be exhibited tonight, but there will be other fancy and useful articles which the class of some fifty students have been making during the winter session, and a most cordial invitation is extended to all those interested in the beautiful to visit the Tenth Street School this evening from 7:30 to 9 o'clock.

A vited and a packed auditorium is anticipated.

The leader of the chorus will be Dean S. H. Blakeslee, and S. Earle Blakeslee will be at the organ.

In Europe Mars keeps rocking the boat.

Study the Genus Bandit

THOSE whose business it is to administer the criminal law would do well to make a thoroughgoing study of the bandit when they have an opportunity. Every few days we have cases of holdups and crimes of violence. Some of these offenders are never arrested and, of course, those cases cannot be studied with any satisfaction except as to means of preventing a recurrence. But where a bandit is either killed or taken into custody the material is at hand for a study of the tendencies which go to make bandits. When men take up that line of work there is some reason for it, and knowing the reason is the first step toward a cure.

We hear reports from prison officials that the probation system is working well and it is a hopeful sign when this is true. But do we know what proportion of the crimes are committed by old offenders? Every time a man on parole commits a new crime it is evident that a mistake was made in turning him loose. One weakness of the prison system is that it tends to brand a man for life so that he has no incentive to reform. Once in prison he is afterwards a marked man and the suspicion of society is upon him. This is a powerful force to keep him under. The parole law is designed to soften this hardship and when the leniency is deserved it is a most valuable feature. But when the leniency is not deserved its exercise is doubly harmful to society.

A study of the facts of birth, training, economic and moral condition of offenders and the present motive for crime could not fail to reveal information of the utmost usefulness. If it is shown that the bandits come chiefly from that class which makes a profession of living without work, it would suggest to the police that such persons need special watching. They should have authority to require them to mend their ways or to give guarantees of their good behavior. That would be locking the stable door before the horse is stolen instead of doing it afterwards.

Most criminals go wrong because of a lack of proper oversight and training when young. The formative period of adolescence is the time of danger. There is no substitute for home training. Bad habits formed in this period are most difficult to shake off in later life. The great secret of keeping boys in hand through this period of danger is to keep them interested and happy in useful pursuits.—San Francisco Journal.

Grief-Bowed Town Buries Fire Victims

CAMDEN, South Carolina, is grief stricken over the death of seventy-six children, parents and friends in a schoolhouse fire. It is useless to elaborate on the details of the fire which resulted from a rickety fastening causing an oil lamp to fall to the floor during an entertainment being given by the children.

The suffering caused by such fires as this is beyond understanding, and yet almost weekly we read of such schoolhouse tragedies where one or more children meet death.

The only difference between this fire and others is in the number killed, and this will bring it forcibly to the attention of the whole nation.

The National Board of Fire Underwriters has been doing everything in its power to show the American people the criminal waste which they permit each year when they allow 15,000 persons and some $500,000,000 in property to be wiped out by fire, when about 90 per cent of such death and loss is preventable.

The Underwriters' Laboratories in Chicago has been testing every kind of building and household equipment as to its fireproof or fire-resisting qualities and its advice on these matters is free to the public.

Carelessness with fire is equally dangerous in a little town like Camden or in a great city like New York.

Let this awful disaster be a warning to every household in the land to be careful with fire, and let parents demand that public officials see that schoolhouses and public buildings are properly safeguarded so that another Camden catastrophe cannot occur.—Industrial News.

One-Quarter of Our Taxes

THE care of dependents consumes more than a fourth of the revenue of the average state, according to a report made to the national conference of social work. Some way must be found to stop the increase of defective people, who constitute a constantly growing burden upon the community.

Not merely does a heavy price have to be paid for care of insane, feeble-minded people, etc., but these cases of misfortune are a terrible tragedy for the families where they occur. Preventive measures will be cheaper than spending vast sums to take care of defectives after mental or moral maladies become fixed.

Schools for backward children, playgrounds where young children are taught good sportsmanship and square dealing, health instruction and inspection in schools, are three methods that prevent many young people from starting on some wrong track. They are cheaper than asylums, prisons and hospitals.—Pomona Bulletin.

Ford In Limelight

IF Henry Ford should be elected president of the United States, we would have the remarkable situation of the richest man in the country, if not in the world, as its president. More than that, he is probably the only extremely wealthy individual who could be considered as a possibility for the presidency. Nor does the average person think of Ford as an extremely rich man. He is looked upon more as a man recently poor, who has been suddenly advanced to a position of great power and wealth as the result of the manufacture of a useful and not too perfect article for the use of common people. He is not a politician. He probably doesn't know a great deal about political parties or political affairs. He knows little about government, diplomacy or history. He is a mechanical genius and a financial wizard. He is also proving to be a great executive. The Democrats want him as a standard bearer because they think that he might beat the Republicans and not because they have any idea that he has the particular training or ability to fill the office. They would like another chance at the pie counter, which during their recent incumbency had plenty of pie. At that they might be fooled if they should put Ford over.

Already the Jews, the negroes and the Catholics have taken a violent dislike to Ford on the charge that he is giving comfort and aid to the Ku Klux Klan, which may be a little far fetched but will have a tendency to make the approaching campaign a most bitter one.

If the people were electing men to run automobile factories they could not do better than elect Henry Ford. In selecting a man for president they would do better to stay with a tried and true man, trained to the job.

FAMILIAR POEMS

A BIRTHDAY

My heart is like a singing bird
Whose nest is in a watered shoot;
My heart is like an apple tree
Whose boughs are bent with thick-set fruit;
My heart is like a rainbow shell
That paddles in a halcyon sea;
My heart is gladder than all these
Because my love is come to me.

Raise me a dais of silk and down;
Hang it with fair and purple dyes;
Carve it in doves, and pomegranates,
And peacocks with a hundred eyes;
Work it in gold and silver grapes,
In leaves, and silver fleur-de-lis;
Because the birthday of my life
Is come, my love is come to me.
—Christina Georgina Rossetti

THE WANDER FEVER

When summer winds come pokin'
round my little cabin door,
And glints of summer sunshine dance
like fairies on the floor,
My heart grows mighty weary for the boundless solitudes
Of lifted hills and hidden brooks and heaven-touching woods;
The long white trails are callin' and my heart is sore to go Where, far from human habitudes, earth's dream and vision flow,
To lose myself in Nature till I quite forget the world,
Just satisfied to sun myself where silence is unfurled.
The ways of men are lovely—but the days of God are best,
Until I hit the wayward paths that run away from toil
And mix a fellow's longings with the odor of the soil;
Just trampin', trampin', trampin', till the stars of night are set Above an honest weariness that harbors no regret.
With God's love smilin' on my heart
from every rock and tree
And singin' in the wavin' grass—O that's the life for me!

COLUMBUS DYING

By Edna Dean Proctor
Hark! do I hear again the roar
Of the tides by the Indies sweeping down?
Or is it the surge from the viewless shore

That swells to bear me to my crown?
Life is hollow and cold and drear
With smiles that darken and hopes that flee;
And, far from its winds that faint
and veer,
I am ready to sail the vaster sea!

Lord, Thou knowest I love Thee best;
And that scorching peril and toil
and pain,
I held my way to the mystic West, Glory for Thee and Thy Church to gain.

And Thou didst lead me, only Thou, Cheerful my heart in cloud and calm,
Till the dawn my glad, victorious
prow

Greeted Thine isles of bloom and balm.
And then, O gracious, glorious Lord,
I saw Thy face, and all heaven
came nigh,
And my soul was lost in that rich reward.

And ravished with the hope of the bliss on high,
So, I can meet the sovereign's
frown—
My dear Queen gone—with a large disdain;

For the time will come when his chief renown
Will be that I sailed from his realm of Spain.

I have found new lands—a world,
maybe,
Whose splendour will yet the Old
outshine;
And life and death are alike to me,
For earth will honor, and heaven is mine.

Is mine!—What songs of sweet accord!
What billows that nearer, gentler roll!
Is mine!—Into Thy hands, O Lord,
Into Thy hands I give my soul!

WOMEN IN THE TRADES

(New York Herald)

Women perform much more heavy and severe labor in industry and field than they usually get credit for. The census reports show them active in all trades except those in which union control is most stringent, as in certain lines of railroad work. In agriculture they are a mighty factor. In the latest census year no fewer than 211,969 women worked as farm laborers away from home, while 576,642 helped till home acres. There are 1,398 women engaged in herding livestock; 1,495 mine coal and metals, and 279 are listed as lumbermen, raftsmen and woodchoppers.

Somewhere in this broad land six women plasterers are welding trowels and mortarboards, nine are "buzzing" wood and five coopering barrels. There are also three women plumbers, two women forest rangers, five women blacksmiths and two women auctioneers. Whoever said a woman cannot drive a nail is wrong; 171 women carpenters give the lie to that myth.

In other trades calling for skill and muscle, as well as in those which require their followers to face danger frequently, women are enrolled. The census says that among employed women there are 13 firemen, 12 cranemen, 6 smeltermen, 3 baggagemen, 20 motormen, 4 switchmen, 12 linemen and 1 turfman.

Two women tread the quarter-deck as marine officers, while no less than 32 are sailors. Thirty-four are engine hostlers and three are horse hostlers. Two earn their livings as lifesavers and one as a veterinary surgeon. But the prize specimen of the whole census is a woman butler. There is only one; a unique genius standing absolutely alone in the United States. The city or suburb possessing her should receive its reward in publicity.

OFFER BIG PRIZES IN ESSAY CONTEST

A national essay contest on "Why America Should Prohibit Immigration for Five Years" has been announced by the American Legion, who wish every school child in San Bernardino County between the ages of 12 and 18 years to take part.

The contest is now open, announces Miss Ida M. Collins, county superintendent of schools, and will close October 12th. Miss Collins will receive all the compositions in this county and will forward them to National Legion Headquarters. The contest has been arranged to give the children the summer months in which to prepare their copy. There are three large prizes offered, $750, $500 and $250, to the successful contestants.

The purpose of the Legion in offering these prizes is to stimulate interest among school children in the great national questions of the day and to encourage education.

A board of judges for San Bernardino County will choose the winning essays here, and those selected will go to the state judges. The Legion, state and county school officials will appoint the judges. Three educators of national prominence will judge the essays sent to national headquarters.

Compositions will be restricted to 500 words in length, though style and originality of treatment in the order named will be the basis considered in judging the essays. Spelling and penmanship will also be considered.

FRIDAY AFTERNOON CLUB ENTERTAINED AT SYCAMORES—

Mrs. Herbert Isbell Ross, who is retiring from the active membership of the Friday Afternoon Club of Ontario, was a delightful hostess to members of the club when she entertained at The Sycamores with a luncheon last Friday.

The club colors of yellow and white were used in decorating, and baskets of flowers the same shade were on the dining tables, where covers were marked for the following members of 1923: Mrs. A. W. Burt, Mrs. A. T. Hamilton, Mrs. Amy C. Huntoon, Mrs. Jacob Jesson, Mrs. W. E. Boulton, Mrs. O. N. Steele, Mrs. E. W. Thayer, Mrs. H. E. Swan, Mrs. C. Sheppard, Mrs. Grace Gilman, Mrs. R. H. Gushee, Mrs. R. P. Garbutt, Mrs. G. A. Hanson, Mrs. C. B. Ford, Mrs. D. A. Field, Mrs. William Sulley, Mrs.

Frank F. Woods, Mrs. J. B. Toomey; associate members: Mrs. Jefferson Taylor, Mrs. B. A. Woodford; honorary members: Mrs. R. O. Brackendridge and Mrs. O. F. Ensign of Long Beach, Mrs. Werner P. Craft, Mrs. Isabelle Neales, Mrs. J. P. Garrison of New York, Mrs. Welles Ross and Miss K. M. Monroe of Ontario were invited guests of Mrs. Ross's.

Mrs. Ross was a most gracious hostess and made a very entertaining toast mistress. She asked two charter members, Mrs. Woodford of Claremont, and Mrs. Taylor of Ontario, to talk about the early days of the club life, which was done in a very interesting manner. The Friday Afternoon Club of Ontario is one of the city's oldest organizations and is 28 years old. Many amusing memories were evoked by the talks of the two charter members. Speeches were made by the retiring president, Mrs. G. A. Hanson, and the recently-elected one, Mrs. Grace Gilman, and Mrs. Ross skillfully wove each talk into a perfect thread with her introductory remarks between each one.

After luncheon the guests adjourned to the lobby, where a business meeting was held and plans discussed for next year's work. This is the final meeting of the Friday Afternoon Club until October, when the new year starts.

Officers retiring are Mrs. G. A. Hanson, president; Mrs. W. Sulley, vice-president; Mrs. W. E. Boulton, secretary and treasurer. Those taking office for 1924 are: Mrs. Grace Gilman, president; Mrs. Boulton, vice-president; Mrs. Richard H. Gushee, secretary and treasurer.

BIRTH OF SON TO MR. AND MRS. HEBER CLEWETT

News of the birth of a baby boy to Mr. and Mrs. Heber Clewett of Chino, at the Pomona Valley Hospital on Sunday, June 3rd, was received with many congratulations by the numerous friends in this vicinity. Mrs. Clewett was formerly Miss Thelma Sikes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Sikes, of 151 First Avenue, and before her marriage to Mr. Clewett was assistant librarian in the Upland Library.

This is the first grandson in the Sikes family and he has been named Kenneth Vaughn.

MUSICAL RECITAL OF UPLAND PUPILS—

Those who have heard recitals given by pupils of Miss Laura Kroger were delighted with the one they were invited to attend last Saturday afternoon at Claremont, and those who had never had the pleasure, not only enjoyed the recital, but learnt a great deal about Miss Kroger's method of teaching in the short talk she gave before the recital.

"There is supposed to be a certain amount of mystery about learning to play the piano," remarked Miss Kroger, "but it is really not so. Ear development, which is most important, should be begun, and indeed is only successfully done, in childhood. Practical harmony is essential. The old method of waiting until the pupil is grown up and has learnt to play before teaching harmony is waning before the modern way now employed by many schools of teaching, who believe as I do, that practical harmony should be taught with the first principles of piano playing. As to composition, I lead my pupils to compose, but I do not teach them how. It is developed through each one and encouragement is needed more than instruction."

Miss Kroger then gave an exceedingly interesting demonstration of her method of teaching by having several pupils give proof of their knowledge by telling the name of a note or chord she struck on the piano, each one facing the audience and with their back to the teacher and instrument. Their replies were instantaneous and if an incorrect answer was given, the pupil immediately recognized a mistake had been made and rectified it before anyone else could do so.

Original airs to songs composed by some of the pupils were sung by a Claremont lady, and much enjoyed by the audience, who compared in their minds very favorably Miss Kroger's interesting way of teaching to the old-fashioned, dreary way of their own musical training.

The recital was given in the parlors of the Congregational Church at Claremont, and with jars of ferns and Matijila poppies formed a pretty background for the young players. After the recital punch was served to everyone, Mrs. Royal Bumstead, of Claremont, sister of Dr. C. H. Wimpess, presiding over the punch bowl.

IN HONOR OF MAJOR POTTS—

Complimenting Major P. J. Potts, who celebrated his 83rd birthday on Saturday, Mr. and Mrs. Miles Harnly entertained with a one o'clock dinner at their home on West Tenth Street.

Lovely sprays of Cecile Brunner rosebuds formed the table decoration, and Mrs. Harnly baked a large birthday cake which gleamed with 83 tiny candles, and which was very much enjoyed by the guests, who wished the Major many happy returns of the day.

The guests were Major and Mrs. Potts, Mr. and Mrs. Leon Durham and Lowell Craddock, and after dinner the men guests and their hosts spent the afternoon at the Chaffey Fair, enjoying a delightful and interesting time.

G. T. CLUB RECEIVE GIFTS FROM HAWAII—

Mrs. Edith S. Troeller, a member of the G. T. Club, who is in Lihue, Hawaiian Islands, this year, sent to her club sisters a gift box which was opened last night at the home of the giver's mother, Mrs. S. W. Sedgwick, 746 Second Avenue, who entertained the G. T.'s, assisted by her sister, Mrs. Millard.

Opening the box caused quite a little excitement, and when a string of beads for each member was unwrapped many were the expressions of admiration at the pretty necklaces. Later in the evening Mrs. Sedgwick and Mrs. Millard served delicious refreshments and a social hour was enjoyed.

Some of the members could not be present, but Mrs. Anna Myers, who recently moved to Los Angeles, came out for the affair, and others present were Mrs. R. R. Wisely, Mrs. L. E. Alford, Mrs. Louise Kronmeyer, Sr., Mrs. E. Lutz, Mrs. Charles Allen, Mrs. J. F. Hamilton, Mrs. A. M. Wisely, Mrs. H. O. Blohm, Mrs. E. R. Son.

Among recent immigrants coming to seek their fortune in America is Mrs. Hapel Sas, from Poland. She sounds like good vaudeville material.

Mrs. C. Thudum and son, Roy, returned on Monday from Orcutt, where they have been the guests of relatives for the past week. They made the trip by motor over the coast route and report a most excellent road. The scenery was beautiful and every mile of the 208 they travelled was very much enjoyed.

Mrs. Zilpha Gray spent the week-end in Pomona the guest of friends.

Mr. and Mrs. James Sykes and their daughter, Mrs. Mathews, are recent arrivals here from Los Angeles. They have leased a house on San Antonio Heights, and if the attitude of Upland agrees with his wife, Mr. Sykes will probably buy a home here.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Anderson and family and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Anderson motored to Victorville on Sunday, where they attended the annual picnic of the horticultural inspectors of San Bernardino County. The picnic was held on the banks of the river at Victorville, and some seventy-five people were present. Fred Anderson, Jr., who was visiting his brother Harold, an inspector at Daggett, will remain in the desert country for several days longer.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Sikes, accompanied by their son, Kenneth, and Paul Moore, motored to Newport and Balboa over the week-end. While in Balboa Mrs. Sikes visited Mrs. W. A. Eastlack, and was delightedly surprised to be greeted at the door by her hostess. Mrs. Eastlack has been very ill for several months, and while Mrs. Sikes knew there had been an improvement she did not expect to find her in such a good state of health. Upland friends will be glad to know of Mrs. Eastlack's convalescence.

CHERRY FESTIVAL
YUCIPA THURSDAY

Cherries are ripe in Yucaipa, and the members of the Upland Chamber of Commerce have received an invitation from the Chamber of Commerce in the cherry country to attend the annual cherry festival next Thursday.

The Festival has been an annual affair for several years, and an increasing number of people have thronged the valley from year to year to attend the function.

The Automobile Club of Southern California is co-operating this year in arranging routes and making it easy for auto parties to attend the festival.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Davis motored to Los Angeles and Santa Monica on Sunday, where they spent the time with relatives. Mr. Davis will close the cafe during the hot weather months on Sundays, and last Sunday was the first free one since the previous summer.

L. L. Hammersley sold his general merchandising interests in Etiwanda to W. H. and John Frost, former owners of the store, who sold their stock and leased the building to O. P. Whiting of Cucamonga about four years ago. The Hammersleys bought the store about a year ago. They have no definite plans for the future.

SOCIETY

BENEFIT FOR MONTE VISTA
HOME BY CAVELL CHAPTER—

The bridge and Mah Jongg benefit party to be given by the members of the Edith Cavell Chapter next Thursday afternoon at the Upland Hotel promises to be a widely attended affair. Tickets are selling well, and as everyone in the West End of the county is very interested in the Home for Aged Women recently opened in San Bernardino, it is safe to say that the card benefit will be very well attended.

Mrs. Isaac C. Baxter is chairman of the committee on arrangements, and tickets may be bought from her, Mrs. Horace Little, or Mrs. James H. Black, in Upland, and Mrs. John E. Walker, Mrs. Martin Stewart and Mrs. C. Sheppard in Ontario.

In addition to the amusements provided there will be a sale of children's garments, all hand-made by Chapter members, and late in the afternoon refreshments will be served.

LEGION WOMEN TO MEET THURSDAY—

The members of the Woman's Auxiliary of the American Legion will hold their evening meeting next Thursday, June 7th, at 7:30, in the club house on Second Avenue, and a delightful time is expected, as this will be a "June Frolic," and what the nature of the entertainment is to be is yet unknown to all save those who are getting up the program. The mothers in the Auxiliary are the ones responsible for the evening's fun, and every member is planning to go.

REUNION OF OLD
CAMPFIRE GIRLS—

The first Campfire to be organized in Upland had girls of the Chaffey graduating classes of 1915-16, and after an absence of eight years some of the original members with their leaders and former high school teachers met on Sunday for a joyful reunion and picnic supper held on San Antonio Heights.

The Campfire was called Ra-Ma Nachee, and was organized with Miss Jane Martin of Ontario as first guardian. Mrs. H. W. Hawkinson later took over the directorship, and was present at the meeting yesterday to join in many a happy "do you remember," and laugh over the memory of several jokes and pranks and jolly tramps and camping trips. Some of the members were married, and others had travelled far during the eight years since they had last met as an organization, so the time sped swiftly in talking, and bringing events up to date.

Among those present were: Mrs. Hawkinson, Miss Katherine Jones, Miss Clara Bissell, Mrs. Lloyd Lorbeer (formerly Miss Elva Henry, chemistry teacher at Chaffey, and more recently teaching in India); Mrs. F. J. Powell (Alma Garbutt), of Ontario; Mrs. N. B. Close (Esther Hess), of Monrovia; Mrs. C. V. Benson (Viola Manker), of Upland; Mrs. R. Biller (Minnie Clark), of Pasadena; Mrs. Hillingdall (Gertrude Isaacs), of Los Angeles; Miss Elizabeth Jensen, physical director at Pasadena High School; Miss Kathleen Leahy, school nurse in Ontario; Miss Gertrude Eymann, on the banking force of the Commercial National Bank of Upland.

AS HE SAW IT

"Do tell me something about the play," she said to the young man. "They said the climax was superb." "Yes, I am inclined to think it was very good," said Percy. "Can't you describe it to me?" she asked.

"Well, the heroine came stealthily on the stage and knelt, dagger in hand, behind a clump of ribbons. The hero emerged from a large bunch of purple flowers and as soon as she perceived him she fell upon him, stabbed him and sank half-conscious into a very handsome aigret. This may sound queer, but the woman in front of me wouldn't remove her hat and that's how it looked."—Chicago News.

SNARE OF THE TEMPTER

When Thomas placed a rosy apple by the garden gate and then secreted himself behind a hedge, he thought he had done so unobserved. But he was mistaken. An old gentleman approached him and began a lecture: "My boy," he said, "do you not know that you are very wrong in placing that apple by that gate? Some poor boy might be tempted to take it."

"Well," said Thomas, "that's just what I want him to do."

"Why?" inquired the old gentleman.

"Why?" repeated Thomas. "Because I've hollowed out the inside and filled it with mustard."—Illion Citizen.

ALTA LOMA AGAIN WINS FROM LEE'S ALL-STARS

Lee's All-Stars of San Bernardino made another unsuccessful attempt yesterday, before a crowd estimated at 300, to conquer the Alta Loma baseball team. This time they had a picked bunch of men on their lineup, but fell before the Alta Loma players by a 7-0 score. Brumfield was on the mound for Alta Loma and struck out 14 men, walking 3, against 3 fanned by Alvarado and 3 walked by him. Alvarado was taken from the mound in the sixth, and Brogan, who substituted for him, fanned 1 man and walked 2. In the previous game Alta Loma beat Lee's All-Stars 4 to 3.

"To be sure, I want my daughter to enjoy some kind of artistic education," said the father who had recently made his fortune. "I think I'll let her study singing."

Postal Receipts Grow

Ontario's continued steady growth was reflected in figures made public yesterday by Postmaster John Mitchell and Miss K. A. Monroe, librarian of the Ontario Public Library.

Receipts at the postoffice for May were $3,605.50, as against $2,736.75 for the same month of 1922, a gain of 32 per cent, and the increase for the entire first five months of the present year is in excess of 30 per cent over the first five months of 1922, according to figures given out by Postmaster Mitchell. The figures follow:

	1922	1923	Gain
January	$2,958.25	$4,349.75	47
February	2,449.00	2,987.65	22
March	2,867.75	3,675.22	28
April	2,714.75	3,353.00	23
May	2,736.75	3,605.50	32

Miss Monroe announced that book circulation at the Ontario Public Library during the month of May, just closed, totaled 4,402 volumes, as against 4,057 for the same month last year, a gain of 342. While this is slightly less than the gain made in April, when the circulation was 4,920 volumes, as against 4,217 for April, 1922, or more than 500, it is noteworthy that many libraries in this vicinity have reported increases rather than gains.

P. E. Berger, who is in charge of the outgoing mail at the Ontario postoffice, reports that the office cancellation machine showed an increase of 11,000 pieces of mail passing through it the past month over May of last year.

Stork Falls Down

The stork fell one short of his record for May, 1922, there being only 12 births recorded in Ontario during the past month, as against 13 for the same month of last year, according to figures just made public by City Clerk D. B. Wynne. Of the 12, nine were boys.

There were ten deaths recorded in the city during the month of May, as against eleven for the same month of the preceding year.

Mexicans Escape

Three Mexicans, who are said to have been bent on doing bodily injury to Louis Castillo after he was alleged to have cut G. Marquez of Upland on the right breast in a fight over a card game, made good their escape in a motor car Friday night when the Ontario police were called.

Castillo was also reported to have left for parts unknown in an auto mobile. Dr. F. F. Abbott was called to attend Marquez, but his injuries were declared not serious.

Halts Building Sale

Action looking toward the sale of the Alford building, C Street and Euclid Avenue, to satisfy a judgment in the amount of $5,000 given in favor of several local firms with claims against F. E. Alford, former city service manager recently convicted of embezzlement, was halted Saturday when Mrs. W. J. Dozier, Alford's aunt, stated that her husband, who holds a $15,000 mortgage on the property, would leave New York immediately for Ontario, and would settle the claims upon his arrival.

Attorney A. O. Dillon, representing the firms who were granted the judgment, agreed to stay proceedings pending Mr. Dozier's arrival.

Skylight Burglar

Although a burglar some time Friday night gained entrance to the dry cleaning department of the Ontario Laundry Company, 403 North Euclid Avenue, by way of the skylight, an investigation by the heads of the company and the Ontario police failed to disclose any loss.

It is presumed that the thief was looking for money and failing to find any, departed empty-handed.

A RESPONSIVE CHORD

Betty Brown, the prettiest girl in the village, was blessed with a father who snubbed all the young men who came to see her. One evening a bashful young man named Samuel Green called.

After the trio had sat together in silence for some time, the young man ventured to remark:

"It looks as though it might rain, sir."

"It's not going to rain," was Father Brown's gruff reply.

For nearly half an hour there was complete silence. Finally the old man's curiosity got the better of him.

"Who are you?" he growled.

"Samuel Green," was the response.

"What? Not old Tom Green's son?"

"Yes, sir."

"Well, then," exclaimed the father, thawing, "it may rain, it may rain."

—Pittsburg Chronicle-Telegraph.

A young man in college was quite a wag; though able enough, he was not noted for scholarship. Finally, owing to lack of zeal in study and to press of social activities, he approached mid-term in very serious condition. Rumor placed him foot in his class, while it conceded first honor to his friend Bill F.

One day the witty youth was bragging: "Tell you what, fellows; me and Bill are running that Junior class. Bill's leading and I'm pushing!"

Judge.

"Bina, the ice pan's running over. Won't you please empty it?" asked Mrs. Eddy of her new Swedish maid.

Bina had recently embarked from the old country and her place with Mrs. Eddy was her first job in the United States.

She was as yet unspoiled by the American attitude of servants, and hastened to do her mistress's bidding. She emptied the water in the pan, purged it thoroughly dry, filled it with clear water and replaced it under the ice box.—Judge.

GUERNSEY BREEDERS TO HOLD FIELD DAY

The Guernsey breeders of California will hold a big field day on Saturday, June 16, at the Adohr Stock Farm at Van Nuys, and the Brant Rancho at Owensmouth. Members of the California Guernsey Breeders' Association from all parts of the state will be present at this meeting. E. L. Westover, western representative of the National Association, arrived in Los Angeles Saturday and will be in personal charge of arrangements, assisting the officials of the state association.

The Southern California Purebred Livestock Association have accepted an invitation to be the guests of the Guernsey breeders at their barbecue Saturday and every breeder of livestock in Southern California and those directly interested in livestock development are very urgently invited to attend this meeting and will be welcome guests at the barbecue.

The Adohr Stock Farm conducts the largest and most modern and up-to-date dairy in the state and the largest Guernsey dairy in the United States. It is a model in all the most approved methods of handling milk and milk products and an inspection of this plant will be of great interest. There will be a few talks by prominent livestock men of the west.

CARTHAGE FAST DISAPPEARING

Is Carthage, with its imposing remains of an older civilization, going to disappear altogether, and will the very ruins be lost, too? That is to be feared, according to M. A. Mounot, an archaeologist and member of the grand council of Tunis.

In 1862 Thomas Reid, an Englishman, in imitation of Lord Elgin, tore down the hot baths of Antonin in order to send their columns to London. This act aroused the indignation of the civilized world. But the French have done even more.

They have destroyed the magnificent marble staircase of 120 steps which led to the Platea Nova, taken down the small pillars, transformed the splendid cemetery of officials into a tillable field and converted the wall of Theodosius into road building material.

At present the ruins of buildings and monuments of bygone days are not very numerous, and each year, according to Dr. Carton, corresponding member of the academy of inscriptions, five or six thousand cubic meters of stone are taken away.

If the phone company ever runs out of wrong numbers it can get plenty of the income tax returns.

Every Man A Success

Is the Subject of the First Lecture in the KNOX COURSE This Evening at 7:30 Sharp, in the Basement of the Upland Library.

Joshua made the sun to stand still; but the men who say, "It can't be done," "Too big a risk," "I'm doing my best now" are the fellows who are making the world stand still.

There is a better way. It has been done. "The biggest risk is taking no risk" for one runs the risk of going through life on the wrong trail.

EXPECTATIONS CAN BE REALIZED. Not one man in a thousand is what he could be—too often not even what he was.

Ideas wear out, the brain slumps and drops into low.

"A man can't travel on the ship that sailed yesterday" nor on worn out ideas or last year's enthusiasm.

A renewed SPIRIT OF ENTERPRISE, PERSONALITY, ideas that THRILL and PULL, greater VITALITY, the SPIRIT and EAGERNESS of youth and just how to do things are some of the advantages of the KNOX LECTURES.

Those interested are welcome to-night and if they desire can enroll at the close of the meeting.

One can't be more than he tries to be. Come tonight. Basement of Library, at 7:30 Sharp.

COUNCIL MEETS

Contract for the laying of sewer mains in a district between H and Fourth streets, Euclid and Campus Avenues was last night awarded by the city council to Charles S. Traphagen, whose bid for the system complete was $2,800. Two other bids were received.

Upon recommendation of the music committee, the council voted to enter into a contract with the Upland Concert Band for a series of 10 or more weekly summer concerts to start on the evening of June 22, at the rate of $115.00 a concert.

The appointment by Mayor Willard D. Ball, of Benton Ballou as a member of the city planning commission to fill the vacancy left by the resignation of Crombie Allen was approved by the council.

A request that no outside concession be granted in connection with the Fourth of July Carnival to be sponsored by The Community Players received favorable action at the hands of the council.

Chief of Police W. O. Hardy reported $157.87 collected in business license fees during the month of May and was instructed to make a report on all delinquents at the next meeting.

INCREASED BUILDING ACTIVITY

That Ontario is to be the scene of even greater building activity during the remainder of the present year than has marked its first five months, was indicated yesterday when directors of the People's Mutual Building and Loan Association, in monthly session at the offices of the organization, 235 North Euclid Ave., received applications for loans in the amount of approximately $75,000.

At yesterday's session, the directors approved loans in the amount of $24,900 and gave a further guarantee to take care of additional loans in the amount of $50,000. This brings the loan total to the $300,000 mark and emphasizes what an important factor the association is proving in the rebuilding of the city.

Practically all of the loans approved yesterday were for new dwellings and the association is said to have been largely responsible for the erection of something like 100 new residences in Ontario since the first of the year.

RED CROSS WORK APPROVED

Accomplishments of the Ontario Chapter of the American Red Cross, along the lines of welfare work have been given the stamp of official approval, it was announced today following a visit to the local chapter by Miss Brownlee, field representative for the Western division of the Red Cross with headquarters in San Francisco.

At a meeting of the Ontario Chapter directors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John S. Armstrong, Miss Brownlee expressed surprise at the amount of work which is being accomplished in a quiet way as disclosed by a very complete report presented by Mrs. Geoffrey J. Fleming, who is at the head of the welfare division. Miss Brownlee urged that more publicity be given the work of the chapter.

The need of employing a Red Cross nurse in Ontario during the summer was discussed at length and a special committee appointed to take action on the matter. On the committee are Mrs. Fleming, Claude W. Randall, city superintendent of schools; Arthur I. Peterson, chairman, and J. D. Meriwether of the welfare division of the Red Cross chapter. This committee, which will also act as a budget committee, will make its report at a meeting of the directors to be held shortly.

It is said that if a satisfactory nurse can be secured for the summer months, it is possible that she will be continued as city school nurse when the term opens in the fall, Miss Kathleen Leahy, the present nurse, having resigned to take up similar work in the Hawaiian schools next year.

THREE PAY STIFF FINES

Robert Shields, and C. B. Metcalf of Pomona and J. W. Furman of Los Angeles, arrested Sunday afternoon on drunk charges after they were alleged to have molested Miss Grace Clevenger and Miss Orpha Wheeler, Ontario girls, whom they accosted while the latter were walking on East A street, drew fines aggregating $210.00 when they appeared in the police court before Judge George R. Holbrook, yesterday.

Charges against the trio were changed to disturbing the peace, Metcalf and Furman each paid $60.00 and Shields, who is said to have waxed more obnoxious than the others and to have drawn a razor, paid $90.00.

In pronouncing sentence, Judge Holbrook expressed the hope that his action would help to instill a little respect for womanhood in the trio.

MORRIS ARE HOSTS

Prominent among a number of delightful affairs, which have marked the drawing to a close of the society and club season, was the supper with which Theodore B. Modra, the distinguished Polish artist, and Mrs. Modra entertained the members of the Ramblers Club and their husbands one evening recently at their beautiful new home in West A Street.

Not the least attractive feature of the evening was an inspection tour of the new home. Each room reflects the artistry of the master and the guests united in calling the whole "a thing of beauty and a joy forever." A beautiful Greek frieze features the decorations of the dining room, the heraldic motif is in evidence in the spacious living room, while in the sun parlor the Oriental art of China is employed with rare effect. The mural adornment of the sleeping chambers features bird and flower motifs.

Following an inspection of the house, the company adjourned to the studio in the rear, where a particularly fine radio concert was enjoyed, followed by a delicious supper. Some 40 persons enjoyed the evening.

MIDSUMMER NIGHT'S DREAM

An unusual treat will be offered the students of the High School and Junior College tomorrow morning, when the Anthology and Eschscholtzia Clubs present the famous old farce of Shakespeare, "A Midsummer Night's Dream."

An excellent cast, picked from the two literary societies, has been rehearsing for some weeks. Their constant efforts has insured first-rate acting throughout.

The cast consists of many who have starred in other large productions. Bottom, the vain, a laughable character, is taken by Henry Batchelder; Snout, Snug, Starling and Flute are taken by Kenneth Disher, Jack Springer, Morris Frost and Tom Drake; Quince, the would-be director of the lamentable comedy of Pyramus and Thisbe, is played by Sheldon Elliott.

The other characters are: Oberon, King of the Fairies, Harold Reed; Titania, his Queen, Alice Laidlaw; Puck, Hilda Johnston; the Duke, Cleatrice Bigley; Hypolyta, Edith Bridenbaugh; Demetrius, Teddy Paer, and the Fairies.

This play will be given at ten o'clock Wednesday. All who are interested in the High School activities and would like to see a good play are invited to come. All for ten cents.

The difference between the average player-piano and the average piano-player is that the former can be stopped.

ABRAHAM WINGARD

Abraham Wingard was born on the 27th day of May, 1841, in Camden, Indiana. He was the eldest in the large family of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Wingard. He came to California in December, 1890. For twenty years he lived in Cucamonga, and for the last thirteen years in Upland.

He was married to Mrs. Mary E. Dewey on August 29, 1871. To this union was born five daughters, three of whom survive: Mrs. Dora Hilbert, of Upland; Mrs. Olive Berg, of Rialto; Mrs. James Hirst of Taft. Besides these daughters there survive him three brothers and three sisters, four grandchildren and one great-grandchild. Mrs. Wingard died thirteen years ago.

Mr. Wingard united with the Dunkard Church when a young man and has been a life-long member of that church. At the time of his death he was a member of the church at LaVerne.

He has been poorly for about two years. Patient, cheerful, of an even disposition, and a sweet spirit, Euclid Avenue will miss a dear old man whose neighbors never annoyed him and who was ever a good neighbor.

He looked forward in his sickness with quiet hope and assurance. He went peacefully to the land without shadow or death on the last day of May, early in the first hour, just four days after having reached his eighty-second year. He has lived long and well. God called and he went away from us to be "forever with the Lord," which for him is "great gain."

Iowa farmers are offering $60 a month and room and board for farm hands, with no takers. They may have to throw in a car.

BOYS DELIVERING TEL. DIRECTORIES

Subscribers of the Ontario-Upland Telephone Company who live in the downtown residence and business section of Upland are receiving their new telephone lists from two boy scouts, Richard Skidmore and Marlin Dettweiler, who are delivering the May, 1923, directories to everyone downtown. They have covered 500 houses and places of business, and have performed their duties to the entire satisfaction of the Telephone Company, who plan to follow the same idea next time.

The boys have also collected the old directories, so that people will not make the mistake of using them in place of the later ones.
